A COLLECTION OF SUPPANDI STORIES FROM TINKLE

Meet the Artist

All the Suppandi stories in this book have been illustrated by the legendary Ram Waeerkar. Ram Waeerkar was one of the pioneers of Indian Comics. He contributed enormously to the success of Amar Chitra Katha, while illustrating some 90 titles in the series. His contribution to Tinkle was no less spectacular. Besides Suppandi, he also gave form to the other Tinkle favourite, Pyarelal. Countless stories and folktales took a new dimension through his artworks.

His drawings are characterised by bold and versatile strokes that impart vigour and liveliness to the characters he portrays. Many artists tried to imitate him, none succeeded. His style remains unique. Once you've read a comic illustrated by Waeerkar, you can easily identify any of his other works even if his name is not mentioned.

Ram Waeerkar lived and breathed comics. He took great pride in his work. "Comics is a visual medium," he would tell comics writers and editors, teasingly. "You people should keep your words to a minimum. Let the pictures speak!"

Ram Waeerkar is no more but his pictures continue to speak eloquently to this day.
